Boiler Survey due August, 1913

In July last the Committee agreed to the Owners proposal to have this inspection carried out when the vessel was drydocked at Leith during August.

In reply to an inquiry the Society's Leith Surveyors now write that the vessel is trading regularly to that port and is there about every fortnight.

The Boiler survey would have been held before this but had to be postponed owing to a strike of boilermakers.

The Owners state that it will be very inconvenient to stop the vessel twice, once for drydocking and again for
