1. The charge for transmission will cover the cost of delivery from the usual Delivery Office:—
 - (a) If the address is within three miles from the usual Delivery Office, or within the limits of the Town or Village of that Office (when it is a Head Post Office) if that delivery extends to more than three miles.
 - (b) If the sender desires it to be forwarded by Post from the Terminal Telegraph Office and writes the words "Post" before the Addressee's name, and at the end of the address the name of the Office at which the Telegram is to be Posted.
2. The charge for delivery of this Telegram during ordinary office hours at any address beyond the limits of free delivery, will be at the rate of 6d. for each mile, reckoned from the limits of free delivery any fraction of a mile being a complete number of miles being reckoned as a mile. This charge will be payable by the Sender, and if not paid the Telegram may, at the discretion of the Postmaster-General, be delivered by Post.
3. The Sender may prepay a reply not exceeding 48 words in length. A Reply Paid Form will then be delivered with the Telegram, entitling the holder within twelve months from its date to frank an Inland Telegram not exceeding in length the number of words indicated on such Form. If the Form is not used, its value will be returned from Headquarters to the Sender of the original Telegram on application being made within twelve months through the local Post Office. The Form must be left with the Postmaster when the application for the return of the amount is required.
4. A Telegram can be repeated back from Office to Office throughout the course of transmission if the Sender desires to adopt this precaution against error. The charge for repetition (which must be paid when the telegram is handed in) is one-half the charge for transmission. If containing mercantile quotations or code words a Telegram must always be repeated.
5. The Postmaster-General will not be liable for any loss or damage which may be incurred or sustained by the Sender or on account of any mistake or default in the transmission or delivery of a Telegram.
6. All applications respecting this Telegram must be made within three months from the date of its transmission.
