Dear Sirs,

S.S. "Ionian"

With reference to our letter Ref. S/0309/65 of the 28th August, 1965, we wish to supply you with the following information.

Constructive total loss: As Owners' Agents, we have already submitted to the hull insurance company, New India Assurance Co. Ltd., Bombay through our brokers at Hong Kong, notice of abandonment, and in accordance with our brokers' recent information that the hull insurance company have admitted liability for the vessel's constructive total loss for which the settlement of our claim is forthcoming.

Removal of wreck: Our P. & I. Club, Oceanus Mutual Underwriting Association Ltd., London have already instructed their Jakarta Representative, Pitcairn, Syme & Co. Ltd. to take up the matter to negotiate with the local salvage company to either refloat or crop the vessel. However, so far as we know, the contract has not yet been signed owing to the fact that the price for the above service has not reached to an agreement.

In view of the foregoing, you are requested to withdraw the vessel's Class in the Lloyd's Register Books and take actions for related matters.

Yours faithfully,
South East Asia Shipping & Trading Co. Ltd.
