26th July, 1935.

Dear Sirs,

E. I have to confirm the telegrams which have passed between us respecting the Loeffler Boiler Installation for the s.s. "CONTE ROSSO", as follows:-

Received.

"Conte Rosso please refer to my letter of the 18th instant Boiler Makers state working pressure of Loeffler Boiler 130 atmospheres safety valves to blow 140 Cable whether the proposed arrangement satisfactory."

Sent.

"Conte Rosso referring to your cable of 25th July cannot reply until additional information requested as per my letter of 17th July received"

I am, Dear Sirs,

Yours faithfully,

Secretary.

The Surveyors,

TRIESTE.
