19th June, 1930.

Dear Sirs,

S.

With reference to Mr. Edgar's letter of the 14th instant respecting the fee for the survey of the steamer "DARIEN", ex "La Marea", whilst under survey at your Port in connexion with the lengthening which has been carried out, I have to say that your proposal to make a charge of 70 guineas in this instance has been agreed to.

You will therefore be good enough to render your account accordingly.

I am, Dear Sirs,

Yours faithfully,

pro Secretary.

The Surveyors,

BELFAST.
