Dear Sir:-

I am in receipt of your letter of the 31st ult. having reference to New York Report No. 32150 on the above mentioned vessel and your remarks on this interesting case have been carefully noted.

We would like to inquire whether this case can be taken as a precedent in any similar cases which may come up for re-assignment of freeboards.

I am, Dear Sir,

Yours faithfully,

Chief Surveyor,
U.S.A. & Canada.

The Secretary,
LONDON.
