Dear Sir,

With reference to your letter of the 10th May last, respecting new freeboard certificates for the steamer "WOLBORG", we have to acquaint you that the vessel is now at this port, and upon enquiry from the local agents we are informed that she is loading against the quay wall and is expected to sail to-night. In the circumstances it is not possible to verify the marks, but the Captain states that he will have this matter attended to at the first opportunity.

We are, Dear Sir,

Yours faithfully,

THE SURVEYORS

H. W. Wanderspey

The Secretary,

LONDON.
