Dear Sirs,

I duly received your letter of the 9th instant regarding the "JULIET DUFF", and much regret that the mistake was not noticed in time, as the Committee cancelled the class of the ship with a casualty record of "To be broken up" on the 4th May.

This decision has, however, been rescinded today and I am pleased to say she will appear in the forthcoming edition of the Register Book still as a classed ship. There will be a record in the forthcoming Supplement of this year's Book to the effect that her class has been expunged as a casualty, but if the question should arise, please explain the matter to the Owners.

Yours faithfully,

c.c. Pubs.

Clerk to the Classification Committee.

The Surveyors,
LEITH.
