E. Carey Esq.,
LONDON.

My dear Carey,

I am much obliged for yours of the 25th accompanying the official letter regarding the reduction of fees for survey of alterations in the case of the oil tanker "CLYDEFIELD".

As we have said in our official reply, Messrs. Smith's people are naturally very appreciative of the concession. It appears that although they expected to obtain the job of these alterations, very keen competition arose at the last moment from Rotterdam and they had to make a big reduction in their price.

With kind regards,

Yours sincerely,

L. P. Davies
