4th April, 1932.

Dear Sirs,

I have to acknowledge the receipt of your two letters of the 29th March respecting the convention freeboards in the case of the steamship "HELIX", and note that the fees and expenses amount to £6 as entered on your report for which I thank you.

In this connexion I have to inform you that an account for this sum (£5 part fee and £1 expenses) has today been rendered to the Owners in this City.

I am, Dear Sirs,

Yours faithfully,

Secretary.

The Surveyors,

PIRAEUS.
