Dear Sir,

Further to your memoranda of the 28th. ultimo and the 5th. March with regard to the Special Survey and the Donkey Boiler Survey on the above vessel, we have to inform you that all arrangements were made for the carrying out of these surveys at this time.

The agents have now acquainted us that owing to the vessel being urgently required, she has now left this port on a voyage to Central America, but that all outstanding surveys will be dealt with upon the vessel's return to Lisbon. //

We are, Dear Sir,

Yours faithfully,

John Guthrie

The Secretary,
London.
