71, Fenchurch Street, E.C. 3.

7th November, 1921.

Dear Sir,

H. I am in receipt of your letter of the 5th instant respecting the steamer "BROUGHTY", and with regard thereto I may say that this vessel which was recently built at Belfast has been classed 100 A1 with records of Lloyd's A & CP and LMC 10,21. The full particulars of class will be posted on payment of the outstanding fee for the machinery survey.

As the survey for classification has been completed you will be in order in surveying the vessel while in drydock at present.

I am, Dear Sir,

Yours faithfully,

Secretary.

Mr. John H. Mackirdy,

DUNDEE.
