LONDON. E.C.3.

Dear Sir,

TRAWLERS "BEN DEARG" & "COMMILES".

I am in receipt of your letter of 1st May, 1952, and have advise that the Company which owns the abovementioned vessels is now deprived of financial aid from the Australian Commonwealth and State Governments and they are endeavouring to sell the two ships and relinquish the Trawling business together.

In the meantime, one vessel is laid up near Fremantle and the other at Albany indefinitely, but should any new Owners appear on the scene I will advise you accordingly.

Yours faithfully,

Wm. G. Davies
