William Watt,

Successor Scott Ross, Bowling, attend on board the S.S. "Carnarvon" at Leith on 28th Nov.
1912, and afterwards on the ship at Bowling on 1st December 1912, for the purpose of ascertaining the nature and extent of the damage stated to have been caused by grounding at Leith on 26th November 1912 while being towed to Glasgow to have machinery placed on board.
On examination found a few rivets in keel of stern frame started and some caulking in same.
Plating of shell plating started, one shell plate on Port side off slightly indented and one frame in way of same indented; The double bottom tanks were examined internally but no indications of damage were found.
Recommended that defective rivets in keel of stern frame be cut out and renewed,
