My dear Carey,

I am obliged for your letter of the 18th instant in regard to the horse power of the Motorship "ASSIDUITY" and I note what you say.

Of course, we were unaware here of the circumstances which you describe and were, therefore, unable to understand why the fee had been fixed on the smaller figure. As, however, I thought that there must be some special reason, you will observe that in my official letter I did not make any suggestion that the fee should be altered.

With kind regards,

Yours faithfully,

J. L. Warlow

E. Carey, Esq.,
