27th August, 1958.

Dear Sirs,

M.S. "ANNUITY".

With reference to my letter of the 7th August, and to the Owners subsequent confirmation to Mr. Orde that the vessel remains laid up at Greenhithe pending possible disposal for scrap, I shall be glad if you will inform the Owners that the Committee are agreeable to all outstanding surveys remaining in abeyance meantime, on the understanding that they are dealt with before recommissioning, should it eventually be decided not to scrap the vessel.

Yours faithfully,

pro Clerk to the Classification Committee.

The Surveyors,
LONDON.
