Dear Sirs,

Motorship "CLYDEBANK"

We have been informed by the Owners of the above ship that she has been sold for breaking up as scrap at your port.

In the circumstances I think it well to inform you that this case has been submitted for the consideration of the Committee, who have given instructions for the class of this ship to be expunged and a notation "To be broken up" entered against the ship's name in the Register Book.

Yours faithfully,

Assistant Clerk to the Classification Committee.

The Surveyors,
HONG KONG.
