Dear Sirs,

S.S. "IKLA".

In reply to your letter of the 18th September, I have to acquaint you that it will be in order for the Special, Main Boiler and Steam Pipes Surveys to remain in abeyance whilst the ship is laid up. If, however, the ship is to be recommissioned, and postponement of the Special Survey be desired until before the end of November, 1959, it will be necessary for a satisfactory General Examination to be held before the ship proceeds to sea.

Yours faithfully,

CPN
