Dear Sir,

" EASEDALE "

This vessel is being disposed of in 1960 and is being refitted at Devonport towards the end of this year.

The Admiralty apparently do not wish to carry out a Special Survey on her, but desire to leave this to the purchaser, if she is not bought for breaking up. In consequence I have been asked for the Society's requirements for a General Examination for postponement of the Special Survey.

I shall be glad to have the Committee's instructions on this matter.

Yours faithfully,
p.p. D.L.H. Collinson,

The Secretary,
LONDON.

Dear Sir,

I should be glad to have the Committee's views on this matter.

R. J. F.

for a General Examination for membership of the Institute of Actuaries. I have been asked for the Society's assistance in connection with the proposed change of name to the Society of Actuaries on the 1st Dec. 1938. The proposed amendments do not seem to conflict with the existing regulations of the Society and I have no objection to the proposed change of name.

Yours faithfully,
R. J. F.
