Dear Sir,

RECEIVED

20 JAN 1959

"DALEGARTH FORCE" and "STOCK FORCE"

The Owners of the "DALEGARTH FORCE" and "STOCK FORCE" are in negotiation to sell both ships for scrap on the Continent. They wish to take the vessels across, probably to Belgium, under their own steam, and I shall be glad to learn if the Classification Committee will be agreeable to this arrangement, and also what surveys will be required on the two ships, which have been laid up for such a long period with Boiler and Screwshaft Surveys now also overdue.

I shall be glad if you will telephone to me tomorrow afternoon, the Committee's decision, after they have had time to consider the cases.

Yours faithfully,

B. E. Keacock
Secretary to the Liverpool Committee.

The Secretary,
LONDON.
