Extract from letter received from N.W. Betts, London, dated 27th March 1940.

Original with "EMPIRE COMMERCE".

" With reference to your letter of the 15th instant regarding the Motorship "ALACRITY", I have spoken to Mr. Nicholas with regard to the certificates for the dynamos and steering motor, and he will arrange to obtain these from the Owners.

With regard to the auxiliaries (Newbury Diesel Engine No.727/8) Mr. Scott informs me that these are Newbury Diesel Standard Engines. "
