Personnel

Dear Sir,

There are fifteen Shell Tankers laid up in Lough Swilly, which the Owners intend to move to a breaking-up Port in the near future.

The Owners desire that Interim Certificates should be issued for each ship for the voyage to a breaking-up Port, and they have been informed of the Society's requirements in regard to Surveys, in order that Survey Certificates may be issued.

In view of the fact that you are single handed in Dublin, it is felt that the Belfast Surveyors are much better placed to undertake these Surveys, and they have been requested to attend to them.

Yours faithfully,

Assistant Secretary.

W.H. Waggott Esq.,
