Sunderland, 17th December 1920.

Secretary,

London.

Dear Sir,

The First Entry reports on the hull and machinery of the amer " Stonewall " Messrs. Bartram & Sons No. 253 are enclosed ewith.

The Owners Superintendent is anxious to have the Classification ificates before the vessel sails and in the meantime the merican Consular Authorities have been informed that the Certificates l be dated the 21st instant.

Arrangements have been made for the vessel to sail on nesday the 22nd instant and the Owners Superintendent has been ormed that the Certificates will be available on the morning that date,

The fee for the Survey of the hull has been paid and account for the machinery fee has been rendered.

I am, Dear Sir,

Yours faithfully,

Alfred Pickworth
