The Secretary,
Lloyd's Register of Shipping,
LONDON.

Dear Sir,

"KULANGSU"

The Owners write to us as follows:-

"We beg to inform you that the vessel is arriving at Chiba, Japan on the 29th instant to discharge a shipment of ore loaded at Marmugoa where Lloyd's Surveyor had conducted general examination afloat as per two copies of Certificates enclosed herewith.

We intend to have the vessel's special survey to be done at Hongkong and in view of her Load Line Certificate is valid till end October, 1962, we would appreciate very much if permission for a voyage from Japan to Hongkong would be granted for her to load dry cargoes as ballast.

Thanking you for your kind consideration."

Cabled advice would appear to be necessary.

Yours faithfully,

James A. Anderson

For the Surveyors.
