Dear Sir,

With reference to London letter of the 11th instant relative to the machinery for the Motorship "SAINT EUNAN", I have to confirm that a spare lubricating oil pump is fitted. The ^{Two} oil pumps are driven from the main engine and are arranged so that each is capable of performing the full service required.

I have also to confirm that the small auxiliary engine is arranged for starting by hand for first charging the air receivers.

I am, Dear Sir,

Yours faithfully,

The Secretary,
GLASGOW.
