Dear Sirs,

M.S. "APANUI"

class I am obliged to you for your letter of the 12th instant. The letter received from Lloyd's Agents at Rarotonga is of considerable interest and the Committee have again been informed of the position. After carefully reviewing all the facts the Committee consider that the circumstances regarding classification should be clear to all concerned by the notation which at present appears against the ship's name in the Register Book, namely "Repairs required - ~~last~~ suspended 1.64" and they have therefore decided to take no further action for the present, but of course to leave this notation as it at present appears.

It is concluded you will inform Lloyd's Agents at Rarotonga to this effect.

Yours faithfully,

Clerk to the
Classification Committee

The Surveyors,
WELLINGTON.
