6th October, 1938.

Dear Sirs,

S. I duly received your letter of the 3rd instant respecting the motorship "GOLDFINDER", and have to say that the vessel is now being measured for British Tonnage by the Board of Trade here in London.

Information in regard thereto has been promised as soon as the Tonnage Measurement is completed, and I will at once pass on this information to enable you to render an account.

It is understood that the vessel has been purchased by a London firm.

I am, Dear Sirs,

Yours faithfully,

Clerk to the Classification Committee.

The Surveyors,
HAMBURG.
