We were subsequently informed by the Owners' Agents in Genoa that the Owners had decided not to proceed with the Safety Equipment Survey in so that the ship was being sold here for breaking up. At our request, the Owners' Agents promised to confirm this in writing.

We are now informed that the ship sailed from this port on the 27th February, 1965, bound for Piraeus, after the local Panamanian Consul had decided to accept the validity of the existing Safety Equipment Certificate.
