Sunderland, 2nd November 1932.

3rd November, 1932.

Dear Sirs,

I am in receipt of your letter of yesterday's date respecting the machinery of the s.s. "WANDLE", and note from your postscript that it is possible the thrust shaft will be examined today on the vessel's arrival and in the circumstances I have to request that you will wire me first thing to-morrow morning reporting thereon.

I am, Dear Sirs,

Yours faithfully,

Secretary.

The Surveyors,
SUNDERLAND.

The Secretary,

LONDON.

P.S.

We have later been informed by the English Sailors that this vessel is expected shortly, possibly tomorrow 3rd instant, when we will be given an opportunity of examining the machinery and a report will be forwarded in due course.
