Dear Sirs,

Steamship "GALAXIAS"

I enclose a copy of a letter received from the Owners London Agents dated the 12th August, the contents of which are self-explanatory.

Provided you are satisfied with the condition of the ship for the proposed voyage, with particular reference to bottom damage in way of No.2 D.B. tank and the remaining requirements of Instructions to Surveyors, Part 11, 1954, "Towage Surveys" are complied with where applicable, a Certificate of Fitness to be towed may be issued.

The Report 10 should be headed "Seaworthy Certificate (in relation to technical characteristics" and state that towing arrangements are the responsibility of the Owners, also that the class is suspended.

Yours faithfully,

pro Classification Manager.

The Surveyors,
VISAKHAPATNAM.
