Dear Sir,

s.s. "WINONA"

In reply to your letter of the 4th instant requesting information regarding the arrangements being made for carrying out of the General Examination we have to state that the local agents, China Merchants Steam Navigation Company inform us that they have received no further instructions from the Owners and that the ship is now in Singapore.

We also enclose copy of letter from Owners dated 4th March and our reply thereto dated 9th and from these you will note that the Owners request to further postpone the General Examination afloat was not concurred in.

So far we have not received a reply to our letter of the 9th March and a further letter, copy of which is attached, has been sent to the Owners today.

Any information received here will be promptly transmitted.

Yours faithfully,

A. K. K. K.
