Dear Sir,

"AUNGTEZA"

A letter has been received from Mr. Mason concerning the discussions which he had with the Authorities in Rangoon concerning the loss of the above ship.

The case is being carefully examined in this Office, but in the meantime I enclose herewith copies of the Classification Certificates for Hull and Machinery and of the report C.11 which I shall be glad if you will kindly hand to U. Tin Maung Maung, the Chairman of the Union of Burma Shipbuilding Board.

The equivalent of £2. 2. Od. should be charged for these documents and this Office credited in due course.

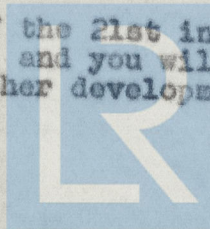

Yours faithfully,

L. H. Todd

pro Secretary

L.H. Todd, Esq.,
RANGOON

P.S. Your letter of the 21st instant has just come to hand, and you will no doubt advise me of any further developments.
