Dear Sir,

Recd 7 JUL 1964
Ans'd
S.S. "SALAMMANNA"

We are in receipt of your letter of the 26th May regarding the due Special Survey and the recent damage to the above ship.

Our Report 8 in respect of the temporary repairs effected at this port last month is sent herewith, from which it will be noted that permanent repairs to the damage, the Special Survey and S.R.L. items will now only be dealt with on completion of the present voyage.

It is understood from the Salvage Association Surveyor that the Underwriters may offer a negotiated settlement to the Owner, owing to the extent and anticipated cost of the permanent repairs.

Yours faithfully,

R. Maxwell Leishman

For the Surveyors.

The Secretary,
LONDON.
