Dear Sirs,

"SANGOLA"

Our passenger ship "SANGOLA" is due Special Survey in November this year. We are at present negotiating a charter which will keep the ship employed for from 6/9 months and we are writing to enquire whether if this employment materializes you would be agreeable to carrying out a general examination of this ship in November with a view to extending the special survey date to November, 1963. It would, of course, be our intention, under the circumstances, to renew the passenger certificate in November 1962.

If you would be kind enough to confirm that this course of action has your approval we shall let you know as soon as possible whether the charter has materialized.

Yours faithfully,

[Handwritten signature]

for General Manager.
