14th March, 1945.

Dear Sir,

S.S. "ADANA", S.S. "AYDIN" & S.S. "MARAS".

Reference previous correspondence, you will be interested to hear that it has now been decided that these three ex British vessels, which were transferred to the Turkish flag as a war measure, are now to be handed back to the British, when they will of course revert to the British Flag. We understand that the vessels will be leaving for Egypt shortly. The other two ex British vessels, "ODEMIS" and "TRABZON", are to be retained - at any rate for the time being - by the Turks.

Yours faithfully,

(Sgd).
