Dear Sir,

I am in due receipt of your letter of the 6th instant with the enclosed fresh freeboard certificate for the steamer "MINNA" for which I have to thank you. The certificate will be transmitted to the Master on the vessel's next visit to this port during this month and the old certificate will then be forwarded to the London Office.

I beg to add that I paid a visit to the Department of Waterways to-day and acted in accordance with your instructions. They say the case is quite in order now.

I am, Dear Sir,

Yours faithfully,

The Secretary,
