ence

Dear Sir,

Further to our correspondence between Lisbon and London with regard to the General Examination in the case of the above vessel, stated to be for sale to Italian Owners, we beg to inform you that part of this survey was held in August but is not yet complete owing to some difficulties arising between the interested parties.

We shall advise you immediately when any more news of the survey and sale come to hand.

We are, Dear Sir,

Yours faithfully,

John Guthrie

The Secretary.

London.
