Reference

Dear Mr. Ferguson,

Thanks for your note, we endeavour to do things in an orderly manner but at the time these cases were in hand we were under considerable obligation to give assistance at short notice to Bristol (a complete change of Surveying Staff arranged by London) and assistance to Newport (at the Tube Works on account of some complaint) all with some sacrifice to the work already in hand by Mr. Donaldson and Mr. Davies at Cardiff.

At the time of writing the Reports 56054 and 56055 Mr. Kendall, in charge of the cases, was apparently not fully advised as to how much had been done by Mr. Donaldson and Mr. Davies and if you will kindly arrange to have the Reports returned they will be rewritten.

The Surveyors appreciate that their omissions have occasioned considerable inconvenience and apology is offered.

With kind regards,

Yours sincerely,

W.J.Ferguson Esq.,
 LONDON.
