6th December, 1933.

Dear Sirs,

With reference to my letter of the 4th and your reply of the 5th October relative to the assignment of Convention freeboards to the s.s. "ALIKI", I beg to inform you I am now in receipt of a report from the Society's Surveyor at Boston, Massachusetts, from which it appears that the new freeboards have been marked on the vessel's sides and verified, and I accordingly have the pleasure to enclose a freeboard certificate and certified copy in respect of this ship.

I am, Dear Sirs,

Yours faithfully,

Secretary.
