Dear Sir,

s.s. "HOLLAND".

NO.62844 IN 1950-51 REGISTER BOOK.

With reference to the above entry in Rtn. 3 for the week ending 1st September, 1950, I have to inform you that this vessel is at present laid up at Durban.

The 2 main boilers were examined throughout, and evidence of chemical embrittlement was found in the combustion chambers of both boilers, there are 2 combustion chambers in each boiler. The Owners have been informed through their local agents, and tenders were called for the renewal of all combustion chambers. I understand that these tenders have been submitted to Amsterdam and that the local agents have been instructed to do nothing until they have received further instructions from Owners. (See accompanying sketch).

Yours faithfully,

D. Y. Baalman

The Secretary,
LONDON.
