The Secretary
LLOYD'S REGISTER OF SHIPPING,
Wiltshire Road,
Wokingham, (Berks)

Dear Sirs,

S.S. "AUSTRAL"

Your letter dated the 17th. November 1943, came to hand on the 29th. March ultimo and I transcribed contents of same to the local Office of the Compañia Chilena de Navegacion Interocéanica, who replied on April 1st. that they were consulting their Head Office at Valparaíso regarding the reinscription of their steamer "Austral" in Lloyd's Register of Shipping.-

On the 6th. instant I received a further communication from these gentlemen of which the following is a free translation: -

"INSCRIPTION S/S. "AUSTRAL" IN LLOYD'S REGISTER OF SHIPPING.

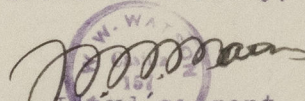

"Making reference to our letter No.352 dated 1st. April, relating to the subject under above heading, we can now communicate to you that we have been informed by our Head Office that for the moment they have no interest in inscribing the s.s. "Austral" in Lloyd's Register of Shipping.-

and which I pass on to you for your information.-

I take this opportunity that the owners have applied for the annual Boiler Surveys of the s.s. "Rio Verde", taking advantage of the fact that the vessel is now on the slipway for repairs and I have appointed a Surveyor who is at present attending to this matter.-

Believe me, dear Sirs,

Yours faithfully,
