Dear Sir;

With reference to the First Entry Reports on the steamers "HANNA NIELSEN" and "NIELS NIELSEN", Seattle Report Nos. 477 and 472 respectively, I am today in receipt of a letter from the Surveyors at that port in which attention is drawn to a clerical error in these reports and I enclose herewith a copy of the same for your information.

I am, Dear Sir,

Yours faithfully,

J. French

The Secretary

MEMORANDUM

I am very sorry

to hear of the death of your son, and I am sure that you will find it difficult to bear.

My sympathy is extended to you and your family, and I hope that you will find some comfort in the knowledge that your son was a brave and gallant soldier.

I am, Sir, very respectfully,
Your obedient servant,
J. H. [Name]
