THE SECRETARY
London

Sir,

I beg to acknowledge receipt of your letter of the 6th inst, with enclosure, respecting the steamer "PARAME" and "CABOURG".

In reply thereto, I regret to say that since the Paris letter of the 6th October 1922, the Société Maritime Nationale, while being very courteous with the Society, are not disposed to modify their usual practice which is to class with the Bureau Véritas every vessel which come into their fleet.

In my opinion, no further attempt should be made as it would only result in a further refusal.

I am, Sir,

Your Obedient Servant

D. Delmas
