The Secretary
LONDON.

Dear Sir,

Steamer "CANADIAN LEADER", "CANADIAN VICTOR",
"CANADIAN HIGHLANDER" and Motorship "CANADIAN CHALLENGER". 12271

With reference to your letters of the 23rd instant, there is no change in the position of any of these ships.

They continue to be anchored at Halifax pending the outcome of strike negotiations.

As you are aware, these ships are owned by the Canadian Government and the decision regarding their future will be made by the Government in Ottawa. No work can be carried out on these ships in the interim.

You will be advised as soon as further information is known.

Yours very truly,

Whidell

Principal Surveyor for Canada

The Surv
MONTREAL.
