

COPY to London

Greenock

14th August, 1951.

Dear Mr. Oxford,

I am enclosing a copy of a letter received recently having reference to a motorship called "NIGERIA" ex U.S.L.C. "F.12".

The local firm of shipbuilders Messrs. George Brown & Co., (Marine) Ltd., have no knowledge of the ship and they suggest that a firm with a name somewhat similar to their own, i.e. Messrs. George Brown & Son of Leith, may know something about it.

Perhaps you will kindly make the necessary enquiries and let Head Office know the result.

With kind regards,

Yours sincerely,

R. I. Alexander

Dear Mr. Cook

This is all I can do. I see of Leith fails here is also another Brown at Hull.
