ready agreed

On the 30th September, 1958, the ship being laid up, the Committee agreed to the outstanding surveys remaining in abeyance provided they be held before the ship again proceeds to sea. On the 24th July, 1959 the Ipswich Surveyors issued a Certificate that that the ship was fit to proceed in tow as a hulk from Harwich to a near Continental port.

New proposal

The ship is still laid up in the River Stour and the year of grace for the Special Survey expires 30.9.59. The ship has been sold and the new Owners request particulars of the Society's minimum survey requirements for the ship to proceed under her own power to Rotterdam.

Technical commendation

Submitted an Interim Certificate might be issued as an unclassified ship, provided a satisfactory G.E. is held for the voyage to Rotterdam.

Submitted the boilers should be examined internally & under 30.9.59.
