Leith, 22nd October, 1930.

Dear Sir,

Messrs. The Burntisland S.B. Co's No. 165
S.S. "TOLWORTH".

With further reference to our letter of the 18th instant concerning the above mentioned vessel, we beg to state that the official number assigned is 162501.

We may may further state we have been advised by the Surveyors at Sunderland that the fees chargeable from their port in connection with the survey of the electric lighting installation amounts to £5:-, and the accounts for the survey on the hull, freeboard, and electric light were rendered to the Builders from this office yesterday.

We are, Dear Sir,

Yours faithfully,

THE SURVEYORS.
