Dear Sir,

S. S. "MARI 11".

We have now received instructions from the Ministry of War Transport that Messrs. Willoughby & Sons, Plymouth, are to carry out the repairs to this vessel, and that it is to be treated as a Priority job.

I have informed Messrs. Willoughby that I shall be in Plymouth every Thursday morning, and should any decision be required during my absence, that Mr. Fowle and your goodself will decide.

I think you will agree, under the circumstances,

this is the only way we can get ahead with the ship.

Yours faithfully,

A. R. Watson

Superintendent Engineer.
