Dear Sir,

With reference to your letter of the 29th ult., with enclosures, I now beg to inform you that this ship yesterday was placed in drydock here, when Mr. Bouboulis, Superintendent, informed our Surveyors that he could not invite them to inspect the bottom etc., pending instructions from the Owners regarding a possible withdrawal from L.R. class, in connection, - so he said, with the sale of the ship actually negotiated.

This morning I was informed by one Mr. Carras of Messrs. Continental Shipping Agency, speaking on behalf of Mr. Bouboulis, that the ship is sold and that our services are no longer required.

I have asked written confirmation.

I beg to confirm my today's cablegram :
