HEAD OFFICE
14 BLYTHSWOOD SQUARE
GLASGOW, SCOTLAND

October 4th, 1943

The Undersigned, H. W. Morris, Surveyor to this Corporation, did at the request of the Wartime Merchant Shipping Limited, attend the works of Messrs. John Inglis Company, Limited, Toronto, Ontario, on March 29th, 1943, and subsequently, to survey during construction, one set of three-cylinder triple expansion reciprocating steam engines, designated works No. 281 and intended to be installed under the survey of Lloyd's Register of Shipping in Burrard Dry Dock Company, Limited, North Vancouver, B.C. ship No. 193. S.S. "FORT ST. CROIX".

The material has been tested by the surveyors to Lloyd's Register of Shipping, and the machinery constructed in accordance with the approved plans and the requirements of the Rules: the workmanship is satisfactory.

The parts of the contract which have been supplied to the shipbuilders, viz. main engines and thrust shaft complied with the requirements of the approved machinery specification.

The identification marks on the shaft are as follows:-
